

Araki International IP&Law (Araki International) opens new office in Marunouchi, Tokyo

February 1, 2022

Today, Araki International announced that they are opening a new office in Marunouchi, Tokyo, Japan to meet their clients' needs.

Araki International was founded in July 2021 with the clear motivation to support clients entering the international market in an effective, efficient and flexible manner. Since then, it has supported clients in international matters such as cross-border patent licensing and international litigation. In addition, leveraging the efficiency of a small team, it has advised clients regarding Japanese domestic laws. With the opening of the new office, the firm will be able to provide better services to all its clients and will continue to make efforts to strengthen the team structure.

The managing partner of the firm, Akiko Araki, who is an attorney-at-law admitted both in California and Japan, says "We are very pleased to announce the opening of our new office. The new office is close to the Tokyo Station, the center of Tokyo, and is easy for all international and domestic clients to access. With this new environment and our culture of promoting open communication and collaboration, we hope that the firm can be an accessible platform for all of our clients to seek their goal with our legal supports. We appreciate all the kind support, which enables us to build friendship with our clients, colleagues and friends. If you visit Tokyo, please feel free to stop by. We look forward to seeing you soon."
